UNT SEA Cultural Showcase:

On Thursday, March 7th, the Students of East Africa (SEA) organization at the University of North Texas (UNT) hosted their second annual East African cultural showcase, "A Trip Through East Africa." The show featured various East African countries, including Somalia, Sudan, South Sudan, Ethiopia, and more.

SEA was created at UNT in 2019 to embody and represent a grand scale of East African ethnicities at the University of North Texas. SEA hosts and engages in many events and activities to educate and bring students together. Some events include bi-weekly general body meetings, social events, fundraising events, volunteering, and community service opportunities.

For Eritrea's show this year, several people were involved. Delina Tewelde oversaw the dance, and Metabiel Asmorom, Melat Frai, Samra Gebrelul, Niyat Gebrelul, and Yosan Tewelde choreographed the dance. To give a shout-out to everyone who participated and excelled: Abraham Beyene, Brianna Mallery, Danait Habtom, Delina Tewelde, Esrom Resom, Esrom Yemane, Melat Frai, Metabiel Asmorom, Milca Girma, Nathan Bahta, Niyat Gebrelul, Sabela Biniam, Samra Gebrelul, Saul Asefaw, Semeret Ocbazgi, Yosan Tewelde. The dance featured the tribes as follows: Tigre, Saho, Kunama, and Tigrinya. The performance also featured a popular lullaby song to start the dance, "Samira Samira."

The fashion show portion of the event was a performance in itself; it featured Kunama clothing and traditional Eritrean Zurias & Tsada Kidan. Saul Asefaw, Danait Habtom, Esrom Yemane, and Sabela Biniam represented the traditional clothing items.

Some students also participated in the Mr./Ms. SEA fashion competition, where they answered trivia questions to win the title Mr./Mrs. SEA. Adonai Bereket & Samra Gebrelul both made it to the finals!

Overall, through the efforts of many, including officers, ambassadors, members, and others, UNT SEA had an excellent and successful showcase
